

THE JOHN A. HARTFORD FOUNDATION
INSTITUTE FOR GERIATRIC NURSING

SUMMER 2010: July 12 – July 16
HARTFORD INSTITUTE
GERIATRIC NURSING RESEARCH SCHOLARS PROGRAM

Attend a week-long, intensive, summer seminar at New York University for an in-depth mentoring experience with nationally recognized gerontologic nursing researchers.

GOALS:

- To foster successful programs of gerontologic research with significant implications for practice
- To assist in the refinement of a program of significant research
- To hone specific research skills and gain a competitive edge for funding

OBJECTIVES: By the end of the Program, Scholars will have

- Engaged in discussion and critical analysis of a variety of research problems
- Advanced and refined an individual program of research
- Refined skills and knowledge in specific areas of research

ELIGIBILITY:

- Completed accredited doctoral degree
- Affiliation with a sponsoring university or healthcare institution
- Demonstrated potential for outstanding gerontologic research
- Recommendation from a senior faculty member or healthcare administrator
- Opportunity to pursue research in the future

SELECTION:

- 12 scholars are chosen by competitive application process annually
- Applications due April 8, 2010

HOUSING, FEES, COMPUTERS:

- The program is underwritten by a generous grant for the John A. Hartford Foundation and administered by the BAGNC program of the American Academy of Nursing (AAN)
- Cost of Seminar for participants is $1500. Participants are responsible for their travel expenses.
- Housing is provided at a hotel within walking distance of Institute. Breakfast and lunch for the seminar week is provided (Dinner is on your own). Laptop computer is required

For further information regarding the Scholars Program please contact

Deborah A. Chyun, PhD, RN, FAAN at:

Hartford Institute for Geriatric Nursing
New York University, College of Nursing
726 Broadway, New York, NY 10003

E-mail: dc116@nyu.edu

Tel: (212) 998-5264 Fax: (212) 995-4561

Website: www.hartfordign.org

